Lady Mushers end basketball season a little early!!!!

Injuries shorten an already short bench! See you next year!!!

It comes down to numbers. At their Tuesday team meeting, the fireball Lady Mushers basketball team regretfully called an end to the season.

Recent injuries to Taylor Rock and Tana Sabin, coming on top of persisting injuries to starters Etta Seamons, Leah Stewart and Ariel Higgins, have made it impossible to muster a full team for the remaining games in the schedule.

Tana Sabin

Musher coach Joel Tews recounted that the energetic team, in the meeting, was disappointed at having to cut the season short because they felt community support for the team has been so strong and affectionate. They don't want to let us down? Well, they haven't.

Taylor Rock

Tews reminded the Beaver, however, that Camas County's peak-and-valley school census is on the team's side over the long haul; next year's bench is projected to be twice as deep as this year's, with only one incumbent team member – Adrienne McGuire – departing as a senior.

Go, Lady Mushers!

Cosmic Squeaker! Peterson vs. Time: Peterson wins!

Musher Boys team wins in thrilling last-four-seconds finish against TFC last Friday! Girls: Taylor Rock injured!

Musher Game Bulletin: Due to cancellation of the remainder of the girls' season, it looks like the remaining boys' games will take place at 6 p.m., rather than 7:30! Any questions? Stay tuned!
