Pilates classes started today at the Soldier Mountain Ski Lodge!

Led by Diane McFerran!

Feel better with mat Pilates at Soldier Mountain Ski area! Classes will be held Wednesdays (7:15 a.m.), Fridays (6 p.m.) and Sundays (10:30 a.m.). Cost is $12 per 55-minute class, and mats will be provided! Classes will take place in the lodge or on the patio outside. For your first class, plan on being 10 or 15 minutes early to register, do paperwork, etc. Pilates is a famous exercise and movement discipline with more than 11 million practitioners throughout the world. For info, or to get a jump on registration, contact Diane McFerran via phone (541-480-7561 or email: mcferran.diane@gmail.com. Diane, by the way, is a expert Pilates trainer with more than 10 years of experience in running a Pilates studio in Oregon, before she and Matt made the move to Soldier Mountain. ❦

Fleck Fire swatted down! 100% contained! Spike rocks Smoky Bar! Fleck Road open for traffic! Feared beard blaze averted!

It started Saturday! Today, it was fully contained, with ongoing mopping up of hot spots! The Fleck Fire, whose cause is still undetermined, started west of Fleck Summit north of Fairfield in the Sawtooth National Forest as a brushfire in a wooded defile above the South Fork of the Boise River just above the confluence with Big Smoky Creek. It burned toward the Fleck Summit Ridge into lodgepoles higher up. The USFS response included rapid action on the ground with USFS hotshot crews and help from Camas County forces, as well as a bigtime presence in the air, with retardant tankers from Boise and bucketeering helicopters shutting from Fairfield International Airport. Nobody was hurt, and nobody reported damage to property improvements.

The air show provided some added zip to the Saturday evening performance by Spike Coggins at the Smoky Bar Store just south of the fire. Coggins' beard is so lush that it is considered a fire hazard of its own, but no hair incandescence or beard hot spots were reported. ❦

Recruiting! No escape at the Fair! Give up now! Avoid the rush!

2016 Camas County Library Foundation raffle! Membership drive!

We will sign up! The Camas Library Foundation will be holding its annual membership drive and raffle during the Fair on Saturday August 6. There will be many terrific and nearly irresistible items for the raffle: a rocker and end table donated by T & L Cedar Lawn Furniture which is the Big Ticket item, a chocolate basket, an overnight stay at the Riverside in Boise, a Soldier Mountain day pass, library book bags filled with books, a variety of children's farm toys, caps, key chains, and more. A curbside booth next to the library will be open shortly after 11 a.m. on August 6, Parade Day, where innocent passersby will be offered nearly irresistible memberships or renewals, and raffle tickets can be bought. Annual memberships and renewals are $50 and will receive five free tickets. Lifetime members will also receive five free tickets. Raffle tickets will be sold for $5 each or 5 for $20. Nearly irresistible! The raffle will take place as soon as the parade is over; you must either be present to win, or compel someone there to serve in your place to select a prize if you win! ❦

Every year at the Fair, the Library Foundation reaches out for new members and renews old affiliations!
