The First Ever! Ever!

Fairfield Centennial Luau!

Luau! A Real Luau!

6-8 Friday in the Park

We're all invited! Roast pig Samoan style! Free!

The Tafuas' gift to the community!

Music! Dancing! A Husky Coconut! A
Speech by Mayor Marolf!

Happy 100th birthday to Fairfield from Eteru and Linda Tafua! The Tafuas are a visiting missionary couple from California who want to cheer Fairfield's centennial with the gift of a Samoan Luau in Fairfield Park, 6 to 8 p.m.! We're all invited, so please come! In addition to the all-important feast -- Polynesian pit-roasted pig! Sweet and sour chicken! Fried fish! Chop Suey! Hawaiian rolls! Green salad! A beverage called Mango Magic! -- the centennial luau will include Polynesian entertainment: music, dancing, and a ceremonious husking of an actual coconut (provided that a suitable coconut makes it through customs)! Mayor Scott Marolf will toast the City's 100th birthday with a special luau address about Fairfield's history! Please join the Tafuas, their family, the Mayor, the pig, the coconut, and the rest of us to celebrate an exotic 100th birthday for the hügest town in Camas County! 🍷

DEQ tests show liver toxin in Mormon Reservoir water! Gakk!

Idaho DEQ confirmed on August 23 that “very high” levels of the liver toxin Microcystin have been detected in test samples taken from Mormon Reservoir on August 8, after a bloom of “bluegreen algae” or cyanobacteria was reported there. According to DEQ, “laboratory results indicate a very high level of the toxin Microcystin. Samples indicated an average of 835 micrograms of Microcystins per liter of water. The World Health Organization indicates that 20 to 2,000 micrograms per liter of water as a “high risk” for recreational water users.”

DEQ: “Microcystin is produced by Cyanobacteria (often called blue-green algae). Microcystin is hepatotoxic, meaning they are able to cause serious damage to the liver. Lesser symptoms include stomach ache, diarrhea, and vomiting. Microcystin can kill animals that drink contaminated water. Dogs, cattle, birds, and fish are more likely to be affected because they are more likely to drink from or swim in affected waters.” 🐸

DEQ advises the public to take the following precautions:

- Avoid exposure to water experiencing a harmful algae bloom (HAB). Take extra precautions to ensure children, pets, and livestock are not exposed to the water.
- Do not consume water with a blue-green algae bloom. Neither boiling nor disinfecting removes blue-green algae toxins from water.
- If fish are known to have been exposed to a blue-green algae bloom, only consume the fillet portion (remove the fat, organs, and skin). Wash hands after handling. The risk associated with consuming fish caught in waters with a blue-green algae bloom is unknown. Toxins produced by blue-green algae can accumulate in the organs of fish.

According to DEQ, the agency will continue to monitor water quality until the bloom dissipates and will advise the public when the concern no longer exists. For more information, visit the DEQ website or obtain the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare blue-green algae brochure at the IDHW website. For updates, visit phd5.idaho.gov or call 866-450-3594.

Some mo' about Samoa! The Fairfield Centennial Luau! Wow! Luau! Wow! wow!

The Republic of Samoa, way off in the Pacific Ocean, is a long way from the Republic of Camas. Samoa, in fact, is about as far from anywhere else as you can get! But Mr. Eteru Tafua, the Luaumaster in charge of Friday's Centennial Luau, found us anyway. Tafua told the Beaver that he originally made the journey to the U.S. in 1968; in hopes of meeting a great Samoan hero, John Wayne. Instead he met Linda, from the Bay Area, who became his wife. "I never did meet John Wayne," he recalls now, without any apparent regret. Fast forward to now: Eteru and Linda, with their kids all grown up, have journeyed to Fairfield on a mission for the LDS Church: "We were sent to do anything we could do to help and support the people here." Hence Friday's luau, the Tafuas offer as a gift to the community that has welcomed them. "It's a wonderful area, with wonderful people," Mr. Tafua says. "We love it here so much." Several of the Tafuas' kids from California and Salt Lake plan to attend Friday's Centennial Luau as well. Mr. Tafua is in charge of the cultural content of Friday's Luau: dancing, music, demonstrations of coconut skills, and, of course, edible culture in the form of a Samoa-style luau dinner. We're all invited! 🍷

Comments? Bike trails on Soldier? Shade on Camas streams?

Talk or Walk! Monday, August 29, is the target date to supply comments on the proposal by Soldier Mountain Ski Area to develop 6.5 miles of mountain bike trails on hometown ski hill! To comment, call the USFS Fairfield Ranger District, 208-737-3202! The same day is the closing date for comments on Idaho DEQ's proposed thermal load limits for Camas Prairie streams. Read the big report available on DEQ's website, and comment on the findings through the website or directly to DEQ's Mark Shumar, mark.shumar@deq.idaho.gov. 🍷

Caboose volunteers appreciation lunch!

September 6! Thanks, folks!

Loose in the Caboose! Caboose volunteers and family/friends are invited to join in for a festive appreciation of their visitor information services on September 6, a week from Tuesday. Food, of course, will be involved! Lunch ($5) at the Senior Center, following a 10 a.m. tour of the Museum! The Caboose Committee will provide a robust dessert, and will host a debut showing of the new visitor slide show! 🍷

A ridge so close, but still a ridge too far: The North Ridge, North Peak, Fourth Peak!

ALOHA!
