Mick Boggs graduates from Army Ranger School!

From Harold Boggs: "Army Second Lieutenant and West Pointer Mickenzie Boggs, Camas County Class of 2010, graduated from the U.S. Army Ranger School on October 20, 2017.

Ranger School is one of the toughest training courses for which a soldier can volunteer. Army Rangers are experts in leading soldiers on difficult missions. For more than two months, Ranger students train to exhaustion, pushing the limits of their minds and bodies. The Rangers' primary mission is to engage in close combat and direct-fire battles. Only 40 percent of the soldiers entering in ranger school will earn the coveted Ranger tab. 🍷

Musher Girls Soccer Teams Close Out Exciting Season!!

By Weekly Beaver Senior Soccer Media Contributing Analyst Man Person Correspondent Vic Weber

It was 20 degrees at kickoff Saturday for the first game of a doubleheader for the fifth and sixth grade Musher girls' soccer team. Though hard running work in practice had the girls as fresh at the final whistle of the season as they were at the first, the cold slowed their start.

Due to a scheduling issue, the girls faced a combination of two teams -- the Musers dubbed this mega team the "Snapping Narwals." In the first game, while waves of opposing team subs did not faze the team, some headwork errors did. They fell behind twice, but came back each time with Harley Brown and Gigi Weber tying the score. Their most lackluster performance of the season ended tied 2-2.

The second game started out better than the first. Miscues, however, had the team down 2-nil at the half; the Musers were in a dogfight. An early mistake at the start of the second half portended collapse as the Snapping Narwals increased their lead to 3-0. Digging deep, the team responded with a goal by Harley. The girls' relentless pressure pounded the opposing defense which, through outstanding goalkeeping, refused to yield. Finally, late in the half Gigi narrowed the score to 3-2 with a smash that found its target in the upper right corner. The Musers continued their daunting attack, and got the equalizer in the final minutes from star defender Tiana Bojorquez. Their season's finest performance ended tied 3-3!

Against the Orange Monsters, Anna Botz left no doubt as to the outcome! No doubt!!!

The third and fourth grade Musers also turned in a season best performance, blanking the Orange Monsters 5-nil in their final game. Once again, net minders Kenley Olsen and Hannah Swenson combined for the shutout. Captain Anna Botz left no doubt to the outcome of the game with her precise defensive positioning while netting two goals. Charlie Lee and Kenley added two more scores. The Musers enjoyed having a substitute in the form of standout second-grader Ivy Ashmead who was brought up for the game. Ivy made an immediate positive impact for the team, nabbing a goal in the process.

Congratulations on a great season, Musers! 🍷

EEO/Drug Free Workplace

For Remington Karmar (78) it was piles of miles last Friday! Three touchdowns against Hansen!

Friday Night was Senior Night on the football field! Cheers to Mollie! Cheers to Erik!

Halftime ceremony at the 64-28 romp over Hansen!

A toast! With balloons! The extended Musher family took Friday's halftime to toast the last home game appearance by the two team seniors and their families! From left: Sharon Kepford, Mollie Kepford, Nikki Kepford, Jeremy Wolf, Roberto Robles, Erik Robles, and Mary Robles! Dang, Mr. Robles – give Erik back his well-earned balloons! Erik made extensive dust Friday all over Fairfeld in the course of delivering four touchdowns over Hansen! 🍷

Musher footballers wound up a solid season Monday in weird playoff bid!

Following last Friday's Kosmic Krushfest against Hansen, the Musher football squad duked it out Monday in a special three-way Kansas City play-in contest with Murtaugh and Castleford, a showdown procedure too complicated for mortal understanding! Murtaugh emerged with the district tournament ticket! Thanks to the Mushers for proud and thrilling play this season! Go Mushers! 🍷

Below: Quarterback Trey Smith finessed geometry to slice the line while avoiding utter destruction! 🍷
