The Camas County, Idaho Weekly Beaver!

Get your shadow back after the eclipse!

Cosmic Turtle Prince Will Devour the Sun Monday! ■ August 16, 2017: These are the Last Days, my friends! Enjoy!

Prepare for Armageddon! Sun to be extinguished Monday at 11:29 a.m.! Avoid the crowds! Give up now! Do not stare at the sun, you fool!!!!! Camas' northern outpost welcomes darksters!

Smoky Bar Store, 24 miles north of Fairfield, is in the path of totality for the Great American Eclipse of August 21, 2017! Observers there will see approximately one minute and four seconds of totality! Nearly a lifetime!!!!! Join us on the deck to observe this once-in-a-lifetime event which is not easily viewed from areas out of the path!

As the Moon's shadow crosses into Idaho over the Snake River, the eclipse will traverse over mountainous terrain. Idaho will be a desirable state to view the eclipse because of good weather prospects.

BBQ on the deck! It's a total eclipse of the Bar!

Weekly Beaver Survival Tips for the Eclipse! If you fail to survive, don't blame us!

Be prepared to tuck and roll. Do not look at the sun. That's right: do not look at the sun. Lift with your legs, not your back. If your child's snot is green, it means she or he is infectious. Stock up on water and corn chips. Head south while you can! Never speak to strangers! Stay upwind of the sun, and take shelter in a non-prickly bush! Think twice about picking up hitchhikers wearing greasy leather vests. Never wear a greasy leather vest yourself. Drink plenty of water if you have some. If you are outside at night, be sure to slather on plenty of high-SPF moon cream. Righty tighty, lefty loosey! You can store a lifetime supply of clean water in a simple garden hose if you cap both ends and insert the water in the middle. During the eclipse, if you hear screams in the dark, hum or sing loudly until the sun returns. ♥

Lyrics for the Eclipse! "In the Dark," by Toots Hibbert and the Maytals!

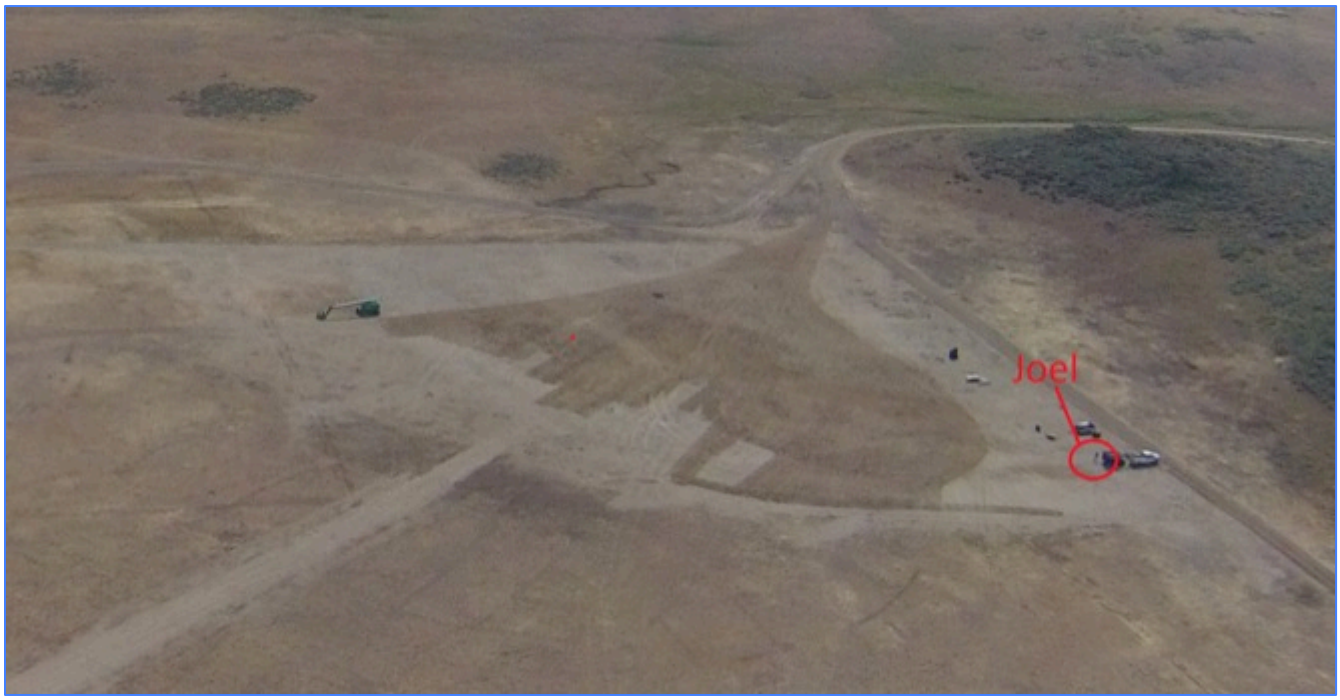
Riddle me this, riddle me this.
Riddle me, riddle me that,
I bet you don't know just where I'm at!

In the dark, you live your life,
In the dark, you cheat and lie,
In the dark, you want to fuss and fight,
In the dark, you will get no life.

Listen, people tell me love, love is true.
People tell me love, what love can do,
You keep on telling me love and then sleep,
That's when you try to turn your back on me.

I'm so lonely and so blue
I keep on loving no one but you
I wonder where you go, I wonder where you are,
One day soon you're gonna break my heart. ★

Hey! It's our own Joel! Down there on the ground!!! No joke! There he is!!!



Joel! Joel! Hey, he's no bigger than an ant! Thanks to the miracle of flying machines, aerialist, wit and photographer Winston Ellis captured and annotated this photo, showing actual Joel Tews of Timberline Trash actually completing finishing touches for cleanup of the actual Elmore County site, a few miles west of Camas County, where the Mountain Home Country Music Festival was held last July. Only dust, spit craters and actual Nashville vibes remain on the huge site. Thanks, Joel!!!

Public Release for Free and Reduced Price Meals

Camas County School District #121 today announced its policy for free and reduced price meals for children
Local School District

unable to pay the full price for meals served under the National School Lunch and Free Provision 2 Breakfast

Each school and the office of the Local School District has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party.

Application forms are available to all homes along with a letter to parents or guardians. To apply for free or reduced price meals, households should fill out the application and return it to the school. Additional copies are available at each school. The information provided on the application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and may be verified at any time during the school year by school or other program officials.

Income Chart (before deductions) Effective July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2018
Annual	Monthly	Weekly	Household Size
22,311	1,860	430	1
30,044	2,504	578	2
37,777	3,149	727	3
45,510	3,793	876	4
53,243	4,437	1,024	5
60,976	5,082	1,173	6
68,709	5,726	1,322	7
76,442	6,371	1,471	8
7,733	645	149	For each additional member add

Households with any member who is receiving Food Stamps, Temporary Assistance for Families in Idaho (TAFI) or Food Distribution on Indian Reservations (FDPIR) are only required to provide the recipient's name, their food stamp, TAFI or FDPIR case number, the student/s name and an adult signature.

For other applicants, the household must list the names of all household members, all household income with the amount, source and frequency of the income received by each household member. If a household member does not have income, the no income box must be checked. An adult signature is required along with the last 4 digits of the adult's social security number. The signature of the adult household member certifies that the information provided is correct.

You may include all foster children's names on a household application with other non-foster children. Foster children are eligible for school meal benefits. Foster children must be the legal responsibility of the welfare agency or the court.

Students who are homeless, runaway or migrant are also eligible for benefits. Household members do not have to be US citizens for students to qualify for benefits.

Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

Under the provisions of free and reduced price policy the Determining Official will review the applications and determine eligibility. Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official(s) may wish to discuss the decision with the Determining Official(s) on an informal basis. Parents wishing to make a formal appeal may make a request either orally or in writing to the Hearing Official for a hearing on the decision.
