The Camas County, Idaho Weekly Beaver!

Thanks for the Sign! ■ May 31, A. D. 2023: The Tooth, the Whole Tooth, & Nothing But the Tooth!

Years in the Making! A Cast of Dozens!! An unforgettable sign!

A HECK OF A VIEW + SOME HISTORY, TOO!!! By Jack Varin!

The Johnson Hill Sign Project was many years in the making. Its initial starting point was when Lloyd Barron, who was on the State Highway Board, thought an overlook on Johnson Hill would be a worthwhile project. The George Carrico Sign graced the overlook for many years until it was stolen on the day of George's funeral. In 2015 the Pioneer Picnic Association undertook the current project to highlight both the beauty of Camas County from the overlook, and also, its amazing history. That effort by many, many different folks has resulted in the installation of both the new overlook site and the placement of the new sign. The project has been aided by having the right person, in the right place, at the right time, with the right capability and the love of Camas County to provide time and resources for this effort. More will be done to add to the site.

Two '23 Musher Grads receive first ever Simon Scholarships!

From Principal Janet Williamson!

For the first time, our graduates are eligible for an amazing opportunity and we are very proud to have awarded the Bill and David Simon Scholarships.

Two $5,000 scholarships were created as a way to encourage and support the students of Camas County.

A committee of school staff members was selected to review student applications and select recipients who have made significant contributions to Camas County.

In addition, the selected recipients have future goals -- for college or technical training -- that will help to make their future communities a better place.

Bill and David Simon both attended Camas County Schools all 12 years. They were thankful for the experiences and opportunities that their education provided them. They were active members of the community and supported continued education.

The first recipient has been a student at Camas School since kindergarten and embodies the meaning of Musher Pride.

She has been active in the student body, athletics, 4-H, volunteered at the senior center, and participated in many community activities. This student plans on attending University of Idaho, majoring in Human Resources and Management.

Congratulations Breanna Ashmead!

The second recipient has been a member of the student body for several years.

She has been active in drama, band, athletics, student government, 4-H, and regularly volunteers for a variety of community groups. This student plans on attending Savannah College of Art and Design in Georgia.

Congratulations Samantha Weber!

4-H Members Throw Down for Clean Up!

Photos thanks to 4-H Leaders Carol Reagan and Danyon Fontenot!

We all know about the 4 H's, but the little-known fifth H stands for "Hustle Those Buns," and on Monday, Camas 4-Hers showed us how it's done with their cleanup service project! Participants included members of various clubs: swine, beef, horse, small animals, hüge animals, archery, shotgun, and others I've probably forgotten! The Sheriff Deputy's truck was loaded up to the gunwales or whatever those things on trucks are called! Thanks!
